Craft and Chatter

A fortnightly opportunity to sit with other people and make some greeting cards!

We will provide resources for you to make two or three cards each time. You won't need to bring anything.

If you are an experienced crafter you will enjoy the challenge of seeing what you can do with the materials provided, but if you are new to paper-crafting you will be given help and guidance to make full use of the items available.

Everyone is welcome, but especially if you haven't played with glue and scissors since you were a child, we'd love to see you. Paper-crafting is an absorbing and satisfying hobby. No particular skills are needed, so if you like the idea of bringing home some handmade cards—then come and join us.

Each session will last 60 to 90 minutes. Although we call the session "Craft and Chatter" there's no pressure to chatter of course, or even to rush at the crafting. Everyone is encouraged to go at their own pace and in their own way. Tea and coffee will be available throughout but we don't have a prescribed tea break. Chat, don't chat, have tea, don't have tea—but however you approach the session you can be assured of lovely crafting embellishments to enjoy throughout!

Craft and Chatter

£10 (£8 concessions)

Details

Each Craft and Chatter session costs £10. There are no hidden costs—all necessary materials, tea and coffee, are included in the price. You will be given a box of materials to work with each time and in fact you will be given more than you need (so you can use your imagination and make something unique). You will take home all the cards you make but you will be asked to leave behind what you don't use so it can be recycled for other craft sessions thus keeping prices down.

There is space for six adults for this activity, assuming the spaces don't get sold-out you can come to any session you would like to book—there's no pressure to come every time. However, if you book five sessions in a block your sixth booking will be free of charge. If you book eleven sessions as one-offs you will get the twelfth free.

Your place must be booked—please don't just turn up as we need to prepare your box of craft materials in advance of the session. You can book your place by phoning or emailing—please chase us if you don't hear back.

Craft and Chatter sessions are currently on Mondays at 11am. Contact us for dates.

Craft and Chatter is not open to children. However we would be happy to facilitate card-making for children at other times—just talk to us!

Terms and Conditions for booked sessions at the Milndavie Pottery:

- 1. All sessions must be booked and paid for in advance. If you let us know that you are going to pay on the day of your booking we will want firm commitment that you will pay whether you come or not and in this case we will ask for payment at the beginning of the session. It is highly unlikely we can accommodate you if you “drop-in” as most of our activities require preparation before the session
- 2. We prefer payment by Bank Transfer but we are able to accept payments by card and cash on-site.
- 3. If you have to cancel your booking we will give a full refund if you can give us ten days or more notice of the cancellation. Bookings with less than ten days notice will be refunded at half the price of the place but cancellations less than three days before the event will not be refunded. However, if you give less than ten days notice we will TRY to re-sell your place and we will give your payment back in full if we are able to fill your place. This does not apply to courses that require the same person’s attendance at more than one session (such as Clay Club). Individual sessions for these courses cannot be refunded.
- 4. If you have been given a free session as a result of a block booking (eg Craft and Chatter offers a sixth free session when five are booked) please note that if you cancel one of your paid-for sessions you are therefore disqualified from getting the sixth free session. In this case cancelling with three week’s notice and re-booking another session will re-instate the availability of the free session.
- 5. Our offers and money-off vouchers cannot be swapped for cash. Only one offer/voucher can be used for each session booked.
